

NANCY BAILEY

General Manager

Nancy Bailey brings decades of leadership experience in fine wine to her role as General Manager at Hamel. She joined the team in early 2024, drawn by the winery's integrity of purpose and site-driven approach. Her career spans strategic roles at Chalk Hill Estate, Champagne Perrier-Jouët, and Kendall-Jackson, as well as executive leadership at Gary Farrell Vineyards & Winery, where she served as General Manager for more than a decade.

Originally from Syracuse, New York, Nancy first fell in love with food and wine while living in England. She holds degrees from Hamilton College and The Fletcher School at Tufts University. Nancy and her husband live in Sebastopol, and their two grown children work and study on the East Coast.
