

SASKIA TINGEY

Viticulturist

A Sonoma County native, Saskia Tinge brings both a local and global viticultural perspective to Hamel through her work overseeing approximately 100 acres of estate vineyards in Sonoma Valley and the Moon Mountain District. Her vineyard experience spans New Zealand to Southern Chile, and she honed her passion for Biodynamic farming at Azienda Agricola Foradori in Trentino, Italy.

Educated at NYU in Nutrition and Food Science, Saskia began her career in organic vegetable production before pivoting to viticulture, earning dual master's degrees in Viticulture & Enology from Università Cattolica in Piacenza and UC Davis. She lives in Petaluma with her husband.
